

The Bohemian Collection — Pastels Dubai

“In my role as L’Oreal Ambassador, I travel a lot with work and so the inspiration for this collection came from the diverse street style I have observed during my travels in Europe, the Middle East and Asia. This fun, sexy collection is a commercial take on some of the most happening trends that initially emanated from the major Fashion Weeks over the past two seasons but which were cleverly translated into wearable trends by savvy street stylers,” says Natalie Kasses, Creative Director of Pastels Salon.
